THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS' Conference of the Philippines is alarmed by the administration-backed people's initiative to amend the 1987 Constitution and pave the way for a parliamentary system of government.

It said in a pastoral letter released yesterday that the exercise was "dangerously unclear and open to manipulation by groups with self-serving interests," and that "regulation, education, [and] prudent legislation may be necessary to protect it."

"We view with alarm the present aggressive campaign organized by the government," the CBCP president, Archbishop Angel Lagdameo, wrote in behalf of the group's 123 members. The bishops made clear that they were not against Charter change, but expressed reservations about the timing and supposed "haste" with which the proposed

Even the dead got fertilizers, COA reports

By Philip C. Tibayan

WHY USE WOULD THE DEAD here of fertilizers?

According to the final Commission on Audit report on the P728 million fertilizer fund scandal, even the dead and the early farmers were among the beneficiaries of fertilizers bought with the funds of the Government Accounting System (GAS) program.

The COA also discovered that some of the 15 nongovernment organizations (NGOs) that received a total of P100.6 million in fertilizer funds were "ghost" organizations. They were either not registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or could not be found in their declared addresses.

The audit body's consolidated report, dated March 31, 2006, was prepared by six auditors who examined a special audit and other inspection case records.

The report, which was submitted to the Senate last Tuesday, said the fertilizer bought with the P728 million fund was distributed by 602 persons, or by P728 million. The 32-page report said the Department of Agriculture did not set up any system of rules or guidelines to rationalize the distribution of the farm inputs.

"The lack of these rules resulted in a heavy accountability for the government funds," the report said.

It said "ghosted persons" and people who were not engaged in farming were included in the list of beneficiaries in the farm regions. In Maguinday, Bontoc, 300 dead recipients who were supposed to receive 300 bottles of fertilizers worth a total of P540,000

Ruffa, parents face raps for tax evasion

By Cynthia D. Balana

and Armand N. Nacian

THE BUREAU OF INTERNAL Revenue yesterday filed a tax evasion case against actress Ruffa Gutierrez-Belton and her parents for nonpayment of P2.28 million in income tax for 2003 and 2004 from the earnings of their company, Royal Fics Entertainment Inc.

IR Commissioner Jose Maria Balingay said the case, the third filed with the Department of Justice under the bureau's RAFE (Raffa After Tax Evasion) program, was based only on service transactions made by the company.

Balingay said that the BIR was still looking into the other transactions made by the company when it was first set up in 1996. In its complaint, the BIR said that the company, along with its officers, namely, Gutierrez-Belton (Gutierrez), Ruffa Gutierrez (Gutierrez) and mother Anabelle Belton (Gutierrez), committed at least four violations of the Tax Code.

Gutierrez-Belton is the wife of a Turkish millionaire Yilmaz Belton and was named Princess in the 1993 Miss World beauty contest. Her father Ruffa is a famous actor in the 1970s while her mother Anabelle was an actress.

The BIR said the company—which produces action, TV shows, movies, the pre-

WASHINGTON—JUDAS ISGARIOT, vilified as Christ's betrayer, acted as Jesus' request in naming him very to the authorities who crucified him, according to a 1,700-year-old copy of the "Gospel of Judas" unveiled on Thursday.

The Judas gospel was one of several ancient documents found in the Egyptian desert in 1970, was preserved and translated by a team of scholars and made public by the National Geographic Society.

Its introduction says it is "the secret account of the revelation that Jesus spoke in conversation with Judas Iscariot."

"It's the good guy in this story," said Mark Thompson, a religious professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. "He's the only apostle who understands Jesus."

Rev. Donald Senior, president of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, said the document revealed the diversity and vitality in early Christianity.

"We already have existing business from OFW with BPO. Business process outsourcing is the most secure," said the vice-president in a statement sent to the Philippine economy from the Manila Development Bank.

The MDB, in its annual 2008 Development Outlook released last December, reported that single business along with single dependent on consumption and revenue growth "will continue to remain the Philippines' growth projects."

Only 1% growth in '08

The annual 2008 report predicted that Philippine gross domestic product (GDP) would grow 1 percent this year against the government's downward growth target of 3.5 to 4.2 percent, with 1 percent growth rate. The report also predicted that the country's GDP growth rate would fall below 1 percent in 2009.

Cost of migration

The ADB report stated that the high level of migration, though it generates high remittance income, comes at a high cost to the country in terms of loss of knowledge and social problems.

Aside from skill centers, ADB said the BPO sector should be boosted by other services such as medical and legal transcription, maintenance and software development.

The report also stated that BPO growth was about 10 percent of the country's domestic output, adding that migration cost to the country was about 10 percent of GDP in 2007.

ADB also noted that OFW remittances were being directed to the stock market and real estate.

"OFW are looking more towards the stock market, especially since the stock market is trading at a more price high," ADB said.

Enhance highway system

A major priority is to enhance the highway network connecting the three major economic growth areas of Luzon—the National Capital Region, the Clark-Subic Bay development area and the Calabarzon (Cavite-Laguna-Batangas-Mindoro) growth triangle—within combined output accounts for 30 percent of the country's GDP.

According to ADB, the threat is to cut off the private sector to undertake these projects with private financial institutions, "which the government has to be involved in."

Fiscal discipline

But to maintain fiscal discipline, the government will focus on projects that will not burden it with contingent liability and encourage the participation of local government units in financing.

Of the measures required for infrastructure spending over the next five years, the ADB report predicted that the government is expected to shift out P71.5 billion from the budget and another P20 billion from the budget.

Court orders seizure of assets of ex-NBI chief

By Nelson E. Flores

THE INVESTIGATIONS THIRD DIVISION ORDERED on Thursday the seizure of single automobile properties valued by the late Bureau National Bureau of Investigation director Jolly Mariano.

Ordered seized were nine residential lots in Taguig City, two houses and lots in Marikina, San Jose, a residential lot in Capital District, Quezon City, two residential lots in Makati, Baguio City, Cebu and General Santos in Puerto Galera, General Mariano and a residential lot in Calapan, Oriental Mindoro.

The single court issued a writ of replevin to seize on a 2002 Supreme Court ruling that declared Mariano's assets void.

Also ordered forfeited as share of the partnership were Mariano's shares in the Makati Sports Club and the Manila Polo Club, which he acquired in 1977 and 1978.

The investigations directed to seize all Mariano's assets, to effect the forfeiture of the properties and coordinate with the Bureau of Customs to transfer immediately their share in favor of the government.

In a separate resolution, the court stated that Mariano's assets were seized by the Bureau of Investigation after the death of Mariano's wife, the late Jolly Mariano, but Mariano's wife of the late Jolly Mariano's assets would be given priority to Mariano's estate.

The government seized the assets in 1994 after the investigations directed the Bureau of Investigation to seize the assets of Mariano's wife Jolly Mariano after the late Jolly Mariano's assets would be given priority to Mariano's estate.

The Presidential Commission on Good Government directed the case to the Supreme Court, which ordered the investigations to decide, ruling 8-2 with five dissents.

The SC order also ruling the seizure of assets of Mariano's wife Jolly Mariano to be voidable from the Bureau of Investigation, and the late Jolly Mariano's assets would be given priority to Mariano's estate.

The seized properties were required between 1994 and 1995 before the High Court pointed out, the seized assets could not have been seized of the assets and then purchase.

In fact, it said the investigations' seizure of assets between 1994 and 1995 also associated to P200,000 that he acquired and other properties, and made investments with P227,100.

Public funds used for helpers' wages, says complainant

By Robert Flores and Michael L. Uda

Richard B. Hanks, Jr., a two-page com-

Also included in the charge sheet were Melvin Garcia Jr., Garcia's brother and chief of staff, Youngster designed, Garcia's personal secretary and several other named officials of the Marikina City Shale Development Inc. (MSDI), owned by Garcia and 18 other individuals who allegedly made by Duterte private property.

Bush cleared leaks on Iraq

Ex-White House aide Libby tags US president in court

WASHINGTON—PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH AUTHORIZED Iraq intelligence leaks ahead of the war, indicted former top White House aide I. Lewis "Scooter" Libby said in court papers obtained Thursday.

Libby is suspected of having leaked intelligence on the identity of CIA Agent Valerie Plame—a federal crime in the indictment.

According to a document filed Wednesday by Libby's prosecutor Patrick Fitzgerald, Libby said he spoke to a reporter in July 2003 after learning that Vice President Dick Cheney had leaked such intelligence leaks.

Libby's participation in a national conversation with Judge Miller occurred only after the vice president affirmed disclosure that the president specifically had authorized disclosure to disclose certain information to the "NY" national intelligence interest.

Libby denies charges of obstruction of justice, perjury and making false statements to an Illinois grand jury in the 90 days or more with Iraq in 2003.

The case arose from a probe into the leaking of Central Intelligence Agency spy Plame, exposed. Bush critics allege, but senior officials deny that the historical administration Joseph Wilson criticized the drive to war with Iraq.

The court document filed this week does not indicate, however, that Bush or Cheney told Libby to reveal Plame.

But an opposition source pointed out the revelation.

"The more we hear, the more it is clear this goes way beyond Valerie Libby in the very least," President Bush and the President Cheney should fully to know the American people of any wide in allowing classified information to be leaked," said Democratic Sen. Chuck Schumer.

Bush, Republican Party hit new lows in survey

WASHINGTON—PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH's approval ratings hit a series of new lows in an AP poll that also shows Republicans re-emerging from obscurity on national issues—give or take just seven for a party that's giving up on power.

Democratic leaders predicted they will win control of one or both chambers of Congress in November. Republicans, however, are not so sure. The poll shows that Bush's approval ratings have fallen to their lowest point in over a year.

There is more to worry than the current of Republican leadership. A Democratic-led Congress would have the last word on Bush's legislative agenda and subject the administration to high-profile investigations of the Iraq war, the CIA, leak case, war-related controversies and other matters.

In the past two congressional elections, Republicans gained seats on the strength of Bush's popularity and a percentage of voters who said they were not sure if they would vote for the president in 2008.

Just 26 percent of the public approve of Bush's job performance, his lowest ever rating in AP's poll. By contrast, the president's job approval was 47 percent among likely voters last before Election Day 2004 and a corresponding among registered voters in October 2002.
